ONLY FEW BLIND SOLDIERS

(By Associated Press)
Philadelphia, Jan. 5.—Only about 100 soldiers of the American Expeditionary Forces in France have been made blind during the war according to Major William P. Shoemaker, who was in charge of the eye department in all the American hospitals in England. He recently returned to his home in this city after eighteen months of service overseas.

LT. T. D. SCHMIT DIES IN FRANCE

Well Known Portsmouth Boy
Makes Supreme Sacrifice.

First Lieutenant Theodore D. Schmitt, U. S. A., is another local young man who has made the supreme sacrifice for his country, news of his death having been received this forenoon by his mother, Mrs. Katherine Morrissey of Sinefe street.

The telegram stated that Lieut. Schmitt had died about Sept. 7, of wounds received in action in France. The news came as a great blow to the young man's relatives and will be heard with regret by his many friends.

Lieut. Schmitt was a young man of marked ability, a bright scholar and ambitious to make a name for himself. He was born in New York 23 years ago this month, but passed his boyhood in this city. He attended the parochial school and was a graduate of the Portsmouth high school and St. Anselm's college, Manchester. Soon after he went to West Point, from which military academy he was graduated as a first lieutenant in August, 1916. He was assigned to the 39th Infantry and sent to Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C., and went to France in April of last year. The last letter received from him by his mother was on July 30 and he said he had been in the thick of the fighting and his company had won honors and he had received decorations for bravery.

The young man is survived by his mother and two brothers, Gerald and Emmett Morrissey of this city.

Annual meetings are now in order. Jakey is still with us; also his partner, hard cider.

BOLSHEVIKI ADD HORRORS TO WARFARE

(By Associated Press)
Warsaw, Saturday, Jan. 4.—The names of Vilna, Lemberg and Kiev are being written in blood red letters among the western frontier of Russia and scores of smaller cities and towns and estates lying between the cities also are being destroyed by the Bolsheviki. According to trustworthy reports reaching Warsaw they are adding tortures of the dark ages to the customary horrors of warfare.

POLISH ARMY TAKE TOWNS

(By Associated Press)
Berlin, Sunday, Jan. 5.—Polish troops have occupied the railway station at Chroszcz, 4 miles from Bentschen, and have sent an ultimatum to the German commander in that town, demanding that he surrender. The demand has been refused and the Germans will defend the town at all costs, according to the Tageblatt. Bentschen is near the boundary between the provinces of Posen and Brandenburg and is about 45 miles southwest of Posen. Capture of Bentschen by the Poles would be most serious for Berlin and all of northern Germany. It would cut communication between Berlin and Silesia and would endanger the provinces of Frankfurt, on the Oder and all of northern Germany.

The ice men will be waiting lack of help now that there's ice.

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt Died at His Home in Oyster Bay at Four O'clock This Morning--He Had Returned From the Roosevelt Hospital, N. Y., Where He Was Operated On Copyright by American Press Association.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

(By Associated Press)

Oyster Bay, Jan. 6.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt died in his sleep early today at his home on Sagamore Hill. Death is believed to have been due to pneumonia which affected his heart. He suffered a severe attack of rheumatism and sciatica on New Year's day but none believed that his illness would likely prove fatal. He sat up most of Sunday and retired at eleven o'clock last night. About 1 a. m. Mrs. Roosevelt went to his room and found that he had died during the night. Mrs. Roosevelt telephoned to Col. Emil Roosevelt, cousin of the former President and he came to the Roosevelt home immediately. Telegrams were dispatched to the Colonel's children, who were in other parts of the country and abroad. Two of his sons, Major Theodore Roosevelt Jr. and Capt. Kermit Roosevelt, are in service abroad. Capt. Archie Roosevelt and his wife left New York last night for Boston where the Captain's father-in-law is ill. Mrs. Ethel Derby and her two children were in Aiken, South Carolina. Telegrams of condolence and sympathy began to pour in from all parts of the country today as soon as news of the Colonel's death became known. News of the death of the former President was first made public in New York by Miss Josephine Striker, the Colonel's secretary, who received a telephone message from Mrs. Roosevelt early in the day.

The immediate cause of Col. Roosevelt's death was Pulmonary Embolism or lodging in the lung of a blood clot from a broken vein. It is stated by one of his physicians.

The date of Col. Roosevelt's funeral has not as yet been set but it will be held here and at the request of Mrs. Roosevelt will be private. Two services will be held, one at Sagamore Hill and the other at Christ church here which the Roosevelts have attended for years. The Rev. Dr. Geo. Talmage the pastor, will officiate. It is expected Col. Roosevelt will be buried at Youngs Memorial Cemetery, Oyster Bay, in a plot selected by him and Mrs. Roosevelt shortly after he left the White House.

Washington, Jan. 5.—The death of Col. Roosevelt stirred and shocked the Capital. Universal regret at the passing of a great figure in the nation's life was evident on every hand. Profound sorrow was shown by the many who knew the former President personally and his political friends and antagonists joined in expressions of admiration for the man. Men in all walks of life were eager for details. Telephones to the newspaper offices were kept busy with calls from high officials of the government, foreign diplomats and members of Congress as the news spread. The announcement was cabled to President Wilson as soon as it reached the White House. The flag over the executive mansion was lowered at half mast and this soon was done also at all other public buildings. The Supreme Court prepared to adjourn and leaders in Congress were called in to discuss adjournment of both houses and the sending of an official delegation to the funeral.

Flags were half masted at the White House, the Capitol and all public buildings today upon the announcement.

are not the result of chance in the designing. Real scientific knowledge is what makes possible the comfortable, perfect fitting garments we sell. There's a point of economy, too, in having your corsets fitted and that is in the additional wear they give. It is reasonable to expect, is it not, that a garment that fits just right and conforms to every motion of the body without strain or pull, will give the best of service.

From this store you may select Warners, Nemo, C. B., Redfern, La Canille, Ivy, Lily of France and R. & G. Corsets. We show both front and back laced models.

WOUNDED MEN HONOR WILSON

(By Associated Press)

Alton, Sunday, Jan. 5.—Of the many incidents of President Wilson's visit here today, the most touching was the presentation to him by wounded soldiers of a memorial favoring a league of nations. The principal speech delivered by the President was at the municipal reception where he reiterated that the peace must be made in no special interest. He concluded by saying that he had heard the story of Italy's privations and sacrifices in war and added "I take off my hat to the great people of Italy and tell them that my admiration has been merged into friendship and affection."

"MICHAEL JIM" HELD FOR UNITED STATES COURT.

Concord, Jan. 5.—Michael Jim, whose right name is Matho Zaharopoulos, was Friday held by Commissioner Hodgman for the United States court which soon sits in Chicago, Ill. He was set at $3000, in default of which he was sent to the local jail awaiting the action of Judge Edgar Aldrich, who will soon hear the appeal for his removal from this state to Illinois.

Governor Keyes not long ago refused to grant extradition papers for Zaharopoulos, but since that time he has been indicted in Chicago for violating the Mann act.

ORGANIZE NEW TOWING COMPANY

A new organization to be known as the Piscataqua River Towing Company was recently organized with the following officers: President, H. A. Yeaton; treasurer, E. C. Matthews Jr.; general manager, S. H. Holt. The board of directors are H. A. Yeaton, E. C. Matthews Jr., S. H. Holt, and John K. Bates. The company will engage in towing in Portsmouth Harbor and vicinity.

It is now the long hard grind of three months of real winter weather. The winter so far has been remarkably mild and a big boon to some of the contractors having outside work.

EX-PRES. ROOSEVELT IS DEAD

ment of the death of Col. Roosevelt and in respect to the memory of the former President and Commander in Chief Secretary Daniels and Gen. March ordered flags at half mast on every ship, and shore station of the Navy and at every army post and camp at home and abroad.

Colonel Roosevelt's career has left such a vivid impression upon the people of his time that it is necessary to touch but briefly upon some of the more striking phases of his varied, interesting and strenuous life to recall to the public mind full details of his many exploits and experiences.

Called to the White House in 1901 after President McKinley had been assassinated, Col. Roosevelt, 42 years of age, became the youngest President the United States has ever had. Three years later he was elected as President by the largest popular vote a President has received.

Thus Roosevelt, sometimes called a man of destiny, served for seven years as the nation's chief magistrate. In a subsequent decade the fortunes of politics did not favor him, for again a candidate for President this time leading the Progressive Party which he himself had organized when he differed radically with some of the policies of the Republican Party in 1912.

he went down to defeat, together with the Republican candidate, William Howard Taft. Woodrow Wilson, democrat, was elected.

Col. Roosevelt's enemies agreed with his friends that his life, his character and his writings represented a high type of Americanism.

Of Dutch ancestry, born in New York City on October 27, 1858, in a house in East Twentieth Street, the baby Theodore was a weakling. He was one of four children who came to Theodore and Martha Bulloch Roosevelt. The mother was of Southern stock and the father of Northern, a situation which during the early years of Theodore, Junior's boyhood was not allowed to interfere with the family life of these children during the Civil War days.

So frail that he was not privileged to associate with the other boys in his neighborhood, Roosevelt was tutored privately, in New York and during travels on which his parents took the children abroad. A porthole gymnasium at his home provided him with physical exercises with which he combated a troublesome asthma. His father, a glass importer and a man of means, was his constant companion; he kept a diary in which he read so much history and fiction and books of adventure that he was known as a bookworm; he took boxing lessons; he was an amateur naturalist; and at the age of 17 he entered Harvard University. There, he was not as prominent as some others in an athletic way, as it is not recorded that he "made" the baseball and football teams, but his puny body had undergone a metamorphosis and before graduation he became one of the champion boxers of the college. This remarkable physical development was emphasized by something which took place shortly after he left Harvard in 1880. He went to Europe, climbed the Matterhorn, and as a result was elected a member of the Alpine Club of London—an organization of men who had performed notable feats of adventure.

A few months after his graduation, Roosevelt married Miss Alice Lee of Boston. She died in 1883, leaving one child, Alice, now the wife of Representative Nicholas Longworth of Ohio. In 1885 Roosevelt married Miss Edith Kermit Carow of New York, and to them five children were born—Edith, now the wife of Dr. Richard Deby, and four sons, Theodore, Jr., Kermit, Archibald and Quentin.

The public career of the man who was to become President began not long after he left college. His profession was law but the activities that were to come left him no time in which to practice it. In 1882-1883 and 1884 he was elected to the New York State Assembly, where his efforts on behalf of good government and civil service reform attracted attention. When the Republican National Convention of 1881 was held in Chicago he was chairman of the New York state delegation.

After this experience he dropped out of politics for two years. Going west he purchased ranches along the Little Missouri River, in North Dakota, and divided his time between outdoor sports, particularly hunting, and literary work. Here he laid the foundation for his series of books, "The Winning of the West," which was published from 1883 to 1886, and of other volumes of kindred character.

Returning to New York he became the Republican candidate for Mayor in 1886. He was defeated. President Harrison in 1887 appointed him a member of the United States Civil Service Commission and President Cleveland continued him in this office which he resigned in 1895 to become New York City's police commissioner. When Cuba had been liberated Roosevelt returned to New York, to gubernatorial campaigns was in swif with the Republican Party in need of a capable candidate. Roosevelt was nominated. Van Wyck, his Democratic opponent, was defeated. The reformer Roosevelt had favored an Assemblymen he now had the opportunity to consummate, together with others of more importance, and it was during this Administration that he is said first to have earned the hostility of corporations. When the Republican national convention was held in Philadelphia in 1900 his party in New York state demanded and attained his nomination for Vice President on the ticket with William McKinley. In November of that year this ticket was elected.

The policies of McKinley, Roosevelt endeavored to carry out after he succeeded the former upon the Presidency. His tragic death at the hands of an assassin, Roosevelt retained his predecessors Cabinet as his own and kept in office the Ambassadors and Ministers whom McKinley had appointed. As much as two years before the Presidential campaign of 1904 Republican organizations in various states began endorsing him as their next candidate.

It was thus that "the man of destiny" idea became associated with his life. Ostensibly, Roosevelt, leaving the Governorship of New York to become Vice President, was moving forward from state politics into national politics, so his political opponents professed publicly to believe; but it was their secret desire to "shelve" the man and eliminate him from prominence in their own community. It was said, that prompted these political foes to obtain for him the Vice Presidential nomination, which he personally did not desire.

At the height of his public and political career, during the four years of the term for which he had been elected, Roosevelt accomplished achievements which historians will rank high in the international and industrial progress of the country. They included his influential negotiations which, conducted at Portsmouth, N. H., effected peace between Russia and Japan; maintenance of the Monroe Doctrine at a period when European powers were interested in the affairs of Venezuela; the recognition of Panama as a Republic and his treaty with Panama by which the inter-oceanic canal through that country was put under way; and the settlement, through his moral influence in the face of a situation in which there was no adequate Federal legislation, of the Pennsylvania coal mine strike. For his part in terminating the Russo-Japanese conflict he was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1906. Four years later, once more a private citizen, he was Special Ambassador from the United States at the funeral of King Edward VII of England.

A rift in the friendship between Roosevelt and his successor as President William Howard Taft, led to the former's announcement of his opposition to Mr. Taft's re-nomination. The ex-President's influence had been large in placing Mr. Taft in the White House. His influence was equally strong in preventing Mr. Taft from remaining there. Men who had clashed with the Taft policies quickly rallied to Roosevelt's support. Roosevelt assembled what he termed as "constructive ideas as opposed to the conservative ones of the so-called Republican 'Old Guard,'" characterized them with the description "Progressive" and organized the Progressive Party by withdrawing with his followers from the Chicago Convention of 1912. He became the new party's candidate for President. This split in the Republican ranks resulted in Woodrow Wilson's election.

One of the most dramatic incidents in Roosevelt's life occurred during this campaign. As he was leaving a hotel in Milwaukee, to go to a meeting hall to make a political address, a man standing among the spectators in the street fired a shot which struck the Colonel and smashed a rib. Roosevelt insisted he was not seriously hurt and his automobile conveyed him to the hall. There he spoke to an audience which had knowledge of what had happened—sobbing women and grief-stricken men shaken with emotion by his appearance under such circumstances. Examination of the wound showed it was serious and the candidate was hurried by special train to Chicago for treatment. Though he speedily recovered the bullet was never removed. The assassin was sent to an asylum for the insane.

Theodore Roosevelt, besides being a prolific writer, lectured and made public speeches extensively, not only in his own country but in England, Spain, South America and other parts of the world. The facility with which he made political enemies and followers made him a marked man for both the latter and friendly attention of cartoonists and paragraphers. Quaint and picturesque phrases were coined liberally by him and by others concerning him. "Speak softly and use the big stick," "speak words," "pushy act," "mollycoddle" and "my hat is in the ring" were some of the Rooseveltian expressions which attained wide publicity.

When the European war began, Roosevelt vigorously advocated a policy of national preparedness, urging universal military training for the nation's youth. In speeches throughout the country and in his magazine and newspaper writings he criticized, in his respect, the policies of Woodrow Wilson during Mr. Wilson's first term as President.

Mr. Roosevelt, it has been said, was keenly disappointed when he did not receive the Republican nomination for President in 1916. At the same time, however, he refused to follow the ad vice of some of his staunchest followers that he again head the Progressive Party ticket. Instead he prevailed upon the Progressive Party to make Charles Evans Hughes, the Republican candidate, its own choice.

EXETER

Exeter, Jan. 6.—The Robinson seminary and the Phillips Exeter academy both commenced their winter terms this week. The former opened today and the academy on Wednesday. It is expected that there will be many new students at the academy, as the disbanding of the colleges S. A. T. C., where many were drilling, will doubtless send many back to school. It is not known what form the military drilling will take this term, it being made compulsory at the opening of the school year, and a battalion has been maintained since soon after the war started.

There will be two new teachers at the Robinson seminary, Miss Mary Taylor of Waltham, Mass., and Mrs. Mildred Flora Fogg of East Kingston to fill vacancies caused by the death of Miss Marlin Locke and the leave of absence of Miss Fannie Perley. The opening of the seminary was postponed last week to this week.

Robert Soward, who recently returned from France, tells some interesting stories of the great war, he being wounded in the St. Mihiel drive, when a piece of shrapnel struck him in the shoulder while going over the top. The same piece struck the captain, and both of them were compelled to lay on the ground from 2 o'clock till 10 in the evening. Soward was in the 328th regiment, and saw some active duty while across. The only Exeter boy he met while across was William Kennedy, who was in Alsace-Lorraine.

OBSEQUIES

Charles H. Partridge.
The funeral of Charles H. Partridge, Jr., was held from his home in South Elliot at 2 o'clock Saturday with interment in the Holt Hill cemetery under the direction of O. W. Ham.

Mrs. Anna R. Ridlon.
The funeral of Mrs. Anna R. Ridlon was held on Saturday afternoon, with prayers at her home at Atlantic Avenue, North Hampton, followed by the services at the Christian church. Rev. Edward Warren, assisted by Rev. Mr. Knight of South Berwick, officiated. The bearers were Elmer Brown, Frank P. Brown, Irvin W. Brown and Fred A. Brown. Interment was in the family lot in the Christian church cemetery under the direction of J. Verne Wood.

Mrs. Lucy Entwistle.
The funeral of Mrs. Lucy Entwistle was held at 2:30 Sunday afternoon from the home of her brother, Harry J. Freeman, on Islington street. Rev. William P. Stanley officiating. The Union Hebrew lodge were present and held their services. Interment was in the Sigmund cemetery and the bearers were Harold and Percy Freeman and Frank and Charles Stockpole. Undertaker J. Verne Wood was funeral director.

DISCOVER 15,000 MORE BRITISH PRISONERS.

London, Jan. 5.—There are 15,000 more British prisoners in Germany than the British records show, so that a number of men previously given up as dead or missing, will return to their homes, it was stated here recently.

The British had contemplated getting the last 20,000 prisoners out of Germany within a fortnight, but the German records show that there remain in German hands 35,000 men, of whom 15,000, through the failure of the Germans to report their capture and the men's failure to communicate with friends had been listed as dead.

The local members of the legislature will go to Concord today prepared for a week's work. The speaker is to announce his committee on Tuesday.

BOLSHEVIKI MUTILATING WOUNDED

(By Associated Press)
Allied Army in the Dvina, Saturday, Jan. 4.—American troops fighting desperately, have driven the Bolsheviki from Kallish. This town was taken by the Americans last month and they were later driven out and again returned yesterday. The Americans are now about 400 meters from the town south and the line marks the farthest advance by the Americans in October. The battle was fought on the snow two to four feet deep and the American casualties were much lighter than the enemy's.

There is increasing evidence that the Bolsheviki are mutilating allied wounded. Lieut. Col. Corbrey reported that seven Americans were found with their heads smashed and some with their arms and legs smashed with an axe. In one sector the allied troops are advancing on snow shoes.

ENGLAND WANTS A QUICK CONFERENCE

(By Associated Press)
London, Jan. 5.—During the past week there has been a very strong sentiment shown by the leading and influential newspapers to urge that the Peace Conference be started at once and that a rapid solution of the problems be made so as to save Central Europe which is in a bad state of unrest. They recognize that unless this is done and the most and Bolsheviki gain more ground that whatever terms are made will have to be enforced by an allied army.

CONGRESS TO GET DOWN TO WORK

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Jan. 5.—With the holidays ended Congress will settle down to clearing an extra large calendar before March 4. It is expected that debate on the peace conference will be resumed with the opening of Congress. The Senate and House conferees on the war revenue bill will at once begin their session to iron out the difference between the two bills and work nights if necessary to get it out of the day. The House committee will begin hearings on the appropriations and especially on the request of the President that the sum of $100,000,000 be appropriated for the feeding of the demoralized countries other than Germany.

Mrs. Nellie Call returned Sunday evening from a week's visit in New York.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Kittery Farmers' Union will be held at Wentworth hall on Tuesday evening. Business of importance will come before the meeting.

Miss Vera Hutchins of North Kittery is improving from an illness.

Mrs. Howard Langdon and little daughter, Irene, are much improved from their illness.

Miss Mollie Knight of North Kittery has been having a few days' vacation from her duties at the Navy Yard.

Plan to attend the Snow Supper at the People's Society, North Kittery, Wednesday, Jan. 8, from 6 to 9 p. m. The church will be decorated in keeping with the supper and the menu will be baked fish, mashed potato, corn, white bread, pickles, cake, coffee. This will be given by the Willing Workers and a social will follow.

FINE SERVICE AT Y. M. C. A.

A good number were present at the meeting for enlisted men Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. and the service was an especially interesting and helpful one. It opened at five o'clock with a lively song service led by Rev. Perry Warren Caswell, pastor of the Court Street Christian church, the men joining heartily in the singing. Mrs. Frank Randall presided at the piano. Miss Susan Northwick rendered as a vocal solo, "Ring Out Wild Bells."

Rev. Mr. Caswell, the speaker at the service, gave an able talk on a straight start for the new year and after the conclusion he asked how many men would agree to give an expression to the resolve to live in this new year the Christian life to the best of their ability. Fifty-one men stood up and signified their wish to live the Christian life and 49 of these were enlisted men, the others being non-commissioned officers.

At the conclusion of the service the Fellowship Lunch was served by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A.

ZERO WEATHER SUNDAY MORNING

With the advent of the sun on Saturday there came a drop of temperature and Sunday morning was one of the coldest of the winter with zero in many parts of the city. The day was, however, an ideal crisp winter day, and there were many people out walking and in every direction could be seen snow sleds.

3,000 People of Portsmouth Recommend and Endorse DR. T. T. ESTABROOKS

As the only Real Painless Dentist in this city
I have practiced dentistry in Portsmouth for the past four years and during that time I have built up the largest practice in New Hampshire. I have done this by honest methods, absolute painless methods and perfect work and I firmly believe that the public, knowing these facts to be true, will guard themselves and act accordingly.

(DR. T. T. ESTABROOKS vs. "THE IMITATOR")

Look well into the record of your dentist.

BEWARE of imitation, painless dentists who generally follow in my path, hinting vaguely that they have some of the wonderful inventions that I have; imitate and copy my methods in the hope that they may reap some of the benefit justly mine.

Nowhere in Portsmouth can one obtain the expert dental work at the low cost I charge them, except in my office where one will find a staff of expert dentists whose reputation compares favorably with the best dentists in the country.

The Land of Opportunity.

This paper has more than once commented on the fact that the United States is, beyond any other nation on earth, a land of opportunity, a country in which the poorest and humblest may rise to success and distinction.

The recent death in Alaska of John G. Brady, former governor of that territory, recalls the fact that as a child he was taken from a New York almshouse and placed in the custody of the Children's Aid Society of that city, which educated him and placed him on the road to fame and fortune.

That society was founded more than fifty years ago and has a splendid record of achievement. From among the boys that have been in its care have come a governor of a state and a governor of a territory, two members of Congress, district attorneys, sheriffs, mayors of cities, one justice of the supreme court, a federal judge, besides men who have graced practically all of the professions. And there have been many cases in which girls who have been in charge of the society have risen to eminence in the sphere of women's activities.

It may be said that these men and women had the advantage of good training in spite of their disadvantageous starts in life, and in some cases this is true. But that does not obliterate the fact that large numbers of the most successful men of the country began life as poor boys and made their way without the assistance of any organization, and without special help from any quarter. They achieved success by virtue of the grit and determination that were in them, coupled with the fact that their lot was cast in a land in which true merit never fails to win.

There are shining examples of business and professional success springing from the humblest beginnings in all parts of the country. They are to be found in almost every community. At the head of many of the largest business concerns are men who began as office boys. These boys had no one to boost them, but they had ability and ambition, and the country in which they lived provided them with opportunity, which was all they needed and all they asked for.

It is pleasant and profitable to think of these things at a time when so many are in the habit of berating "conditions" and claiming that the common people of the country are practically enslaved by "Capital." It is contended that the time for beginning in a small way and building up a business has gone by, and that the young man without money or influence stands a poor chance for success today.

But in almost every city and town there is living proof that these contentions are not well based. There are successful merchants, manufacturers and professional men who rose from the humblest and most unpromising conditions through their own efforts and the improvement of that opportunity whose hand is stretched out to all.

To ponder such facts and profit by them is far better than to decry "the times" and set up the false claim that there is little chance today for the poor boy.

In a recent interview with an Associated Press correspondent Prince Karl of Hohenzollern said that in his 32 years' experience in the army he had never seen soldiers of better discipline or who behaved better than the Americans. One more evidence that it doesn't take the United States long to raise and equip an effective army.

Governor Smith of New York would have his hands more than full if all the people of that name in the state should claim relationship and ask favors. But, of course, he would not have to pay any attention to the Smythes, notwithstanding the fact that their forefathers spelled their name the same as he does.

The state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League is confident that the prohibitory amendment to the national constitution will be ratified by the Legislature. The fact that New Hampshire is in the "dry" column adds to the probability that the prediction will prove correct.

An investigation has been proposed in New York to determine why Liberty bonds are selling so far below par. After this is finished perhaps it might be well to have one to determine why people patronize pawn shops.

The sudden ending of the war was something of a jolt to lovers of sensational news. But in most of the states for the next few months the legislatures should serve to some extent as "shock arresters."

The Board of Health and the United States Public Health Service here will need to hold a "peace conference" if differences are not otherwise straightened out within a reasonable time.

NAVY YARD NOTES

Civilians at Celebration

Master workmen, supervising clerks and draftsmen of the Charlestown navy yard were among the several hundred guests present at the silver wedding anniversary of Capt. and Mrs. William R. Reeves on Saturday evening.

Where Will They Put Them?

Five more destroyers and two more ships to be converted into troopships are shortly to arrive at the Charlestown navy yard. Why not to a few of them up along the water front at the local yard?

Took Constitution From Here

Rear Admiral Samuel W. Very, one of the best known retired officers of the navy, died at the Newton, Mass., hospital on Friday. He was a native of Eggland and retired in 1898.

He was one of the ordinance experts of the navy, a scientist, one of its ablest seamen and a fine linguist.

In 1873 and 1875 as a junior officer he was on duty at the Charlestown navy yard. He had charge of the magnetic observations of the coast survey in Hudson Bay and Labrador from 1880 to 1882. Next year he was in charge of the "Transit of Venus" expedition to Patagonia.

Old-timers on the waterfront will remember that it was he who shipped the Constitution from the Portsmouth Navy Yard to Charlestown. It required no little skill in seamanship to do this, for the old frigate was very unseaworthy. Once she was obliged to heave to, and she groaned and creaked so frightfully that it seemed as if every joint would cause her to drop to pieces.

From 1890 to 1898 Lieut. Commander Very was stationed at the Charlestown Navy Yard. During the Spanish War he was in command of the U. S. S. Saturn and the U. S. S. Cassin, both in the operations around Cuba. Presently as a commander, in charge of the U. S. S. Cassin, he figured in suppressing the Filipino revolt, and then accepted the surrender of Zamboanga, Mindanao. For this he was specially commended by the Navy Department, on account of his diplomacy.

In February, 1863, a couple of months before he reached his 17th birthday, he was appointed to the Naval Academy and thus, while attached as a midshipman, saw real service in the Civil War as a volunteer.

Want to Use Armory.

The youths at the yard have petitioned Gov. Bartlett for permission to use the state armory for basketball practice and games later.

Will Recite His Poems.

William McColligan, the poet at the naval prison, will be one of the features in the performance of the prisoners to be given in this city. He will recite his famous poems "Zig Zag Burke" and the "Thin Red Line."

In Boston for the Day.

Miss Sarah McWilliams of the yard telephone exchange, is passing the day in Boston.

Still Taking Helpers.

The Industrial Department is still calling general helpers in fast as they can be obtained; 22 were on the list in today's call.

Thirty Are Discharged.

Thirty blueackets completed their enlistment today and were discharged from the receiving ship Southern. Most of them had from Massachusetts with a few from this city.

Back From the South.

Lieut. R. W. Fayell of the yard construction corps has returned from a two weeks furlough passed at his former home in the south.

200 P. C. DIVIDEND FOR FORD MOTOR CO.

Detroit, Jan. 5.—A 200 per cent dividend on the capital stock of $2,000,000 has been declared by the Ford Motor Company. At the meeting of the board of directors Tuesday it was decided to pay 100 per cent of this dividend Jan. 1 and the other 100 per cent Feb. 1.

Further dividends are expected to be declared within a short time. Charles Brownell, director of publicly for the company, said today that more of the profits would be turned back to the stockholders in a few months.

Henry Ford, retired president, holding the majority of the stock, will realize most heavily on the dividend. The Ford family together has 38 1-2 per cent. Edsel Ford, newly-elected head of the company, holding a small block of the stock.

There are seven stockholders, including the Dodge brothers, who started suit against the company a year ago for a share of the undivided profits of the company which were being turned into the construction of new plants in Dearborn. The decision in this suit is now up to the supreme court.

INSTALLING EXERCISES.

A joint installation of the officers of the United and Fannie A. Gardner Rebekah lodges will take place this evening in I. O. O. F. hall. District Deputy President Alice Witham will be the installing officer and at the adjournment of the meeting a social hour will be enjoyed and refreshments served in the banquet hall.

LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE.

L. O. O. M. members are requested to attend a meeting Tuesday evening, Jan. 7. Initiation of candidates and business of importance to this lodge and every member. Out of town members cordially invited. Refreshments will be served by the lodge chef. FRANK DALY, Dictator. W. F. HUBER, Secretary.

There's a boxing show to be held shortly, according to those in the know.

RAILROAD NOTES

The examination of the employees of the B. & M. train service will take place during the next two weeks before Examiner John E. Knowlton who arrived here on Saturday on one of the special cars fitted up for that purpose on each division of the railroad.

The Massachusetts Public Service Commission will give a hearing on Jan. 10 on the petition for several citizens for restoration of former train service of the Medford and Saugus branches of the Boston and Maine.

The award of wages made to the railroad men, which was retroactive in its effect, added $10,000,000 to the annual operating expenses of the Boston & Maine road and $10,500,000 to the expense of the New Haven road. This is one of the reasons why the roads, in the face of increased operating revenue, cannot report any gain in operating net.

The B. & M. bridge crew will shortly begin work of repairing the overhead bridge on the highway just east of Kittery Jet. depot.

House at 123 Raleigh Way
Atlantic Heights
Furnished by Margeson Brothers.

Let us suggest that you visit this little house if you are planning to furnish one of the houses at Atlantic Heights—you will get some good ideas and helpful suggestions. The houses are necessarily small, and much thought must be given to the treatment of the rooms to bring about satisfactory results.

In this house the combination kitchen and dining-room is successfully handled by using a Hoosier Kitchen cabinet, a square golden oak dining table and six golden oak kitchen chairs. Brown and tan conglom rug is used on the floor.

The living-room takes a 9x9 Axminster rug, a fumed oak library table, three fumed oak rockers, a sliding couch and with a few pictures, a clock, an electric drop light and sofa pillows it makes a room one will be glad to live in.

Above are two chambers and a bath-room. One chamber is furnished with a birch-eye maple chamber set and the color scheme is yellow. The back chamber is done in pink and the furniture is oak.

The house is open for your inspection on Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 2 to 4 o'clock. Should we be able to assist you at any time it will be a pleasure to do so.

DRIVE FOR ARMENIAN-SYRIAN RELIEF

Next in the series of nation-wide charity campaigns in which New Hampshire is to take part is that of the American Committee on Armenian and Syrian Relief for $20,000,000 in the nation, and $101,650 in New Hampshire—one per cent of the Third Liberty loan, by the way.

The fund is for the purpose of meeting the immediate requirements of the sufferers from Turkish atrocity, and also to provide them with the agricultural implements and machinery with which to rehabilitate their fertile lands while they also set about the business of state-making. The United States government is co-operating, and will give the use of transports for shipping supplies. The Red Cross is in full accord with the committee, and their relations are reciprocal.

The New Hampshire campaign is being organized by Bishop Parker, with whom are associated, on his executive committee, Governor Hayes, T. Seward Cunningham of Manchester, president of the Chamber of Commerce; John B. Jamieson, chairman of the Committee on Public Safety; Gen. Frank S. Streeter, Frank J. Sweeney of Concord, George H. Turner of Bethlehem, Gen. Elbert Wheeler of Nashua, Judge John M. Young of Dover, and Willis D. Kendall of Manchester, who is the treasurer. The campaign is being organized on the district system, the districts being small, and their chairmen having their own local leaders and exercising general oversight of district committees. The drive will begin on Jan. 12, and continue for a week.

Portsmouth is asked to contribute $3,250. This city is in what is known in the campaign as the Black Rockingham district, which is under the direction of Frederick M. Sise. The towns in the district, and their respective quotas, are as follows:

Greenland, $55; Hampton, $100; Hampton Falls, $93; North Hampton, $232; New Castle, $70; Newington, $61; Rye, $250; Seabrook, $15.

"Cardinal's Residence, 403 N. Charles St., Baltimore." "The attempt to relieve and save the starving people in the Near East deserves the sympathetic support of all Christian people. Not only have the Christian inhabitants of Turkey been impoverished and decimated by a succession of wars, but deplorable and massive have destroyed many families and mothers, leaving hundreds of thousands of orphans to be fed, clothed and provided with homes. The American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief is to undertake to raise, in January, a large sum for this purpose. I hope that all who have given freely for this and other forms of war relief will be generous still in the face of this great tragedy of the war." (Signed) "JAMES CARDINAL GIBBONS." Dec. 17, 1918.

SCHOOLS ANXIOUS TO MAKE UP TIME

The schools will open this morning for the winter term, after a two week vacation, one of which was enforced by the scare of influenza. The board of instruction had planned to make up one of the many weeks lost during the October epidemic by taking only one week at Christmas, and reducing the other vacations so that the loss of the week meant more than ordinary.

The schools will open with some changes. The 11th grade at the high school will be brought back to the Whitby school where an extra room has been provided and the temporary school building at Atlantic Heights will be opened. At first only one room will be provided for and Miss Hall will have a graded school, but as the houses fill the other three rooms will be opened until the new school house is ready.

There were comparatively few changes in the teaching staff during the vacation.

NEW YEAR'S UNION SERVICE

At the North church Sunday evening the annual New Year's service brought out a large congregation and a fine meeting was held.

Rev. Lucius H. Thayer, D. D., pastor of the North church, was in charge of the service and read the responsive lessons and offered prayer. He also made an appeal for Armenian relief.

Rev. William D. Stanley, pastor of the Middle St. Baptist church, and the first speaker, referred to the war and the main thought in his talk was the transfer of the thought of war to peace and that while courage was needed through the war we should now have courage in peace and use our efforts to that end.

The second speaker, Rev. Percy Warren Caswell, pastor of the Court Street Christian Church, told of the opportunities that come to church members, to pastors and to the church with the New Year. He said it was a call to an opportunity and a call to service. The combined choir of the North, Middle Street Baptist and Court Street Christian churches rendered selections. A vocal solo, "Hope of the Ages," rendered by Mrs. Mary Shaw Haynes, and the anthem, "The Call of the New Year," rendered by Freeman Caswell, and violin selections by Peter Kurtz, were features of the musical program. Mrs. George Hill presided at the organ. The congregation joined in the singing of hymns.

The three churches joined in the service, Rev. Alfred Gooding of the Unitarian church and Rev. Dr. Dillingham of the Universalist church being absent from the city.

BEACH PAVILION WAS IN DANGER

Part of Wrecked Schooner Gets Loose at Salisbury Beach.

Part of the wrecked schooner Virginia of Clementsport, N. S., which came ashore at Salisbury Beach during the summer of 1916, worked loose by the heavy sea on Friday and threatened damage to Ocean Beach pavilion. Word was sent to Cashman Brothers, the owners, and a crew of men were sent to the scene where they succeeded in moving the old hull some distance away from the pavilion, thus avoiding danger at present. To guard against any further movement of the hull it will be blown up.

TELLS WHY LIBERTY BONDS ARE SOLD AT LOW FIGURE

New York, Jan. 5.—Christmas, the armistice, lack of employment and Spanish influenza were advanced by the county district attorney's office Friday as reasons why Liberty Bonds have been selling far below par here.

Edward S. Brogan, assistant prosecutor, stated he had begun an inquiry into Liberty Bond selling. He had examined persons representing brokerage houses handling the bonds and had questioned also men whom he described as "scalpers," who admitted they charged more than a fair commission for their services by not handing to the sellers the cash equivalent to the interest coupons attached to the bonds.

Bondholders needed money to buy gifts, Mr. Brogan said; the armistice meant virtually the end of the war, munition plant employees found themselves without pay and had to sell to obtain money, and other holders need money to pay doctors' bills.

Mr. Brogan said he would continue the inquiry, meanwhile asking Stock Exchange houses, which buy from small dealers to discontinue purchasing from "scalpers."

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATION

The Salvation Army Sunday School and children of the worthy poor of the city were given a New Year's party last evening at the Army Hall on State street. The hall was filled and the 11th grade were entertained with music and funny stereoscopic pictures which kept them in a lively mood. Each child was presented with candy as the gathering broke up.

POLICE NEWS

There were five drunks picked up by the police on Saturday night, four out of the five of which were juke drunks and the other was an old fashioned whiskey drunk and he felt better in the morning than the others. When the city was wide open there was sold on more than five drunks picked up on a Saturday night, but of late the combination of jammed saloons, hard liquor and a few other factors has kept the police rather active. Some of the drunks they get who get there through the old route of whiskey, complain that the whiskey is very bad stuff to what it used to be and knocks a man out quicker than in the olden days.

A man who was arrested in the rear of the Brooks Motor Sales on Sunday may be charged with disorderly conduct, as he was in company with a young girl.

The local Bibles seems to be taking a vacation and it is possible that the bullets that Officer Sullivan sent after him on Christmas morning may have had a lot to do with his reform.

MASTERS, MATES AND PILOTS' CONVENTION

The thirty-second annual convention of the Masters, Mates and Pilots Association will be held this week at the Hotel Imperial, New York city.

Capt. John Frost, formerly of this city, and Kittery, who has been the National president for the past ten years, will continue another term as the head of the organization which has greatly enlarged by the addition of several new branches on the Great Lakes.

Captain W. N. Palmer of the navy yard president of the Portsmouth Harbor and second National Vice President, is a delegate from the local branch.

RECORD OUTPUT OF ONE-CENT PIECES BY MINTS IN 1918

Washington, Jan. 5.—Small change required to pay war taxes on many retail articles caused the Government mints to produce 367,611,000 one-cent pieces in 1918, a record output, according to a report today by Raymond T. Baker, director of the mint. The number of pieces minted was 13,331,000; dimes, 68,651,000; quarters, 32,692,000; half dollars, 26,750,000. Neither silver dollars nor gold coins were minted.

The postoffice department is taking plenty of time in deciding who will be the next postmaster of this city. The recent examinations cannot have much bearing on the case. It is rumored that the matter was held over until Senator Hollis could return and express a choice in the matter. As he is now back on the job something may be forthcoming.

Sunday was an ideal day for a brisk walk.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and To Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Nothing from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing army, neck and bust, and replacing thin hollows and angles by the soft, curved lines of health and beauty, there

Georgia Hamilton, the wonderful "Miraculous" girl, who was once thin and frail, says: "BITRO-PHOSPHATE brought about the magic transformation. I gained weight, strength and nerve before I felt so well."

are relatively thousands of men and women who readily feel their excessive thinness. "Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in most of our foods. Phosphates contain there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive, and is sold by D. W. SERATHOL FOR INDIGESTION

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE

Recent investigation of the treatment of a large number of cases of indigestion, flatulence, heartburn, and constipation, resulting from hyperacidity of the stomach, prove that there is nothing more effective in the treatment of these ailments than ordinary Serathol, which can be obtained from D. W. Adams Drug Store in Portsmouth or any good druggist at fitting cost. Many a sufferer from these complaints has been relieved by a small amount of Serathol, and this relief is not a passing fancy, but a permanent benefit from its use. It is a powerful hyperacidity a simple dose of Serathol produces almost immediate effects.

CONSTIPATION.—Purges. Taxol is becoming more and more popular as a remedy for constipation. It is now put in chocolate coated pellets, is inexpensive and can be obtained from all good druggists without a physician's prescription.

VALUABLE JEWELS LOST IN INN FIRE

(By Associated Press)
Lynnfield, Mass., Jan. 5.—Jewels valued at $10,000 were lost in the fire which destroyed the Sautaug Inn Saturday night. The total loss on the house was $100,000, as all but the servants' quarters were burned. The jewels were the property of Mrs. Cornelia Heston, the owner of the inn, and were in her room on the second floor.

ROCKLAND SUSPECT HAS GOOD ALIBI

(By Associated Press)
Lowell, Mass., Jan. 5.—Alfred Thorsen, who was arrested at Rockland last Monday night, was brought here today. Deputy Sheriff H. H. Allen of Jay, who made the arrest, said that he would claim the reward of the state of $1,000 for the arrest of Thorsen. He will be taken to Bath tomorrow and then to Rockland.

Thorsen told the authorities that he left Rockland on Monday morning for South Paris, but he changed his mind when a woman friend told him that there was plenty of work at Rockland and he went there accompanied by the woman. They arrived Monday night and he went to work the next morning in the pulp mill. Deputy Allen said that his story was corroborated by the woman and that the men in the pulp mill were sure that he came to work on Tuesday morning.

Rockland, Me., Jan. 5.—A number of persons who were on the train to Hattfield last Monday morning, have been summoned to appear at the Knox County court house on Monday evening, and it is supposed it is to establish whether Thorsen was on the train or not as he claims. If he was he is eliminated as a possible suspect.

CASUALTY LIST FOR THE DAY

Washington, Jan. 5.—The following casualties are reported by the Commanding General of the American Expeditionary Forces:
Wounded slightly 1090
Wounded (degree undetermined) 1

Private William H. Foster, Gardiner, Me.
Private Ernest Murray, Berlin, N. H.
Private Robert R. Tucker, Manchester, N. H.
Private Claude Duval, New Ipswich, N. H.

DOVER

Dover, Jan. 5.—Joseph Scetena, who was run down by an automobile driven by William Hiron of Portsmouth on the evening of the meeting of Central avenue and Court street on New Year's morning, is much more seriously injured than was at first thought. The attending physician states that it will be at least three months before he will recover sufficiently to resume work.

The body of Mrs. John C. Tasker, who died at Pine Point, Me., was brought here on the afternoon train Saturday and taken to the Rockland memorial chapel at Pine Hill, where services were held. Rev. Robert W. Cor, pastor of the First Congregational church, officiated.

Mrs. Tasker, who was 75 years of age, died of pneumonia last fall, after a three years' illness. He resided here for many years and was interested in public affairs. He represented Ward 3 in the legislature during two sessions and was state senator from the Dover district in 1893. He was a traveling salesman, retiring at the time he was taken ill three years ago. He is survived by a widow and two brothers, Dr. Charles H. Tasker of this city and Eli H. Tasker, who resides in Massachusetts.

The Dover Woman's club will hold a regular meeting at the banquet hall in the city building on Tuesday afternoon. The meeting will be in charge of the art and home economics departments and Rev. Vaughn Dabney at Durham will deliver an address on his year work in France.

Mrs. Eliza P. Collins died at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John T. Perkins at 253 Washington street, at an early hour Saturday, aged 92 years. Mrs. Collins was born in Wolfboro, the daughter of John T. and Sally (Seavey) Parker. She came to reside here six years ago. The funeral services were held at the home of her daughter-in-law this morning. The body was taken to Wolfboro on the afternoon train for interment in the cemetery there.

Supt. of Schools J. E. Wignot, who has been restricted to his home for a number of days past suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia is reported to be slowly recovering.

State Automobile Inspector Maurice Dyer was a business visitor to Dover Saturday.

HARVARD HAS 2502 STUDENTS ON ROLL.

At the conclusion of the first day's registration of the winter term at Harvard University 2502 students were enrolled. The registration is therefore, 500 in excess of the preliminary estimate. Registration will be continued for a few days and it is expected that this number will be increased.

The college, the engineering school and the schools of architecture and landscape architecture are beginning courses at this time. A special session of the graduate school of business administration will begin on Jan. 27 and a special session of the law school on Feb. 1. There will be two special summer sessions. In this way the university is making every effort to enable the men returning from service to resume their studies immediately and to complete the requirements for their degree at the earliest possible moment.

FORD WANTS RECOUNT OF BALLOTS

Washington, Jan. 5.—In a petition to day received by Vice President Marshall and laid before the Senate Henry Ford, Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate in Michigan, asked for a recount. Excessive use of money in Newberry's campaign, intimidation of voters, improper rejection of ballots "flagrant violation" of election laws, and many other charges are made in the petition.

OBSEQUIES

Illia Dotson.
Illia Dotson, aged 3 years, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dotson, at Greenland, Monday morning.

Alfred St. Dennis.
The remains of Alfred St. Dennis, who passed away Saturday at the Portsmouth hospital, were shipped to Lowell, Mass., Sunday, at 8:30, where services and interment will take place.

COLLEGE CLUB MET WITH MISS HEWITT

The College Club held its pleasant session on Saturday afternoon at its monthly meeting at the home of Miss Florence Hewitt on Highland street. Twenty members being present.

Miss Bailey of the American Red Cross and now doing home social service work at the navy yard among the enlisted men, gave an most interesting talk on her work. At the adjournment of the meeting light refreshments were served and pleasant sociability added interest to the gathering.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING.

The annual election of officers of the North Church parish took place Friday evening in the chapel as follows:
Deacon for four years, John S. Rand; superintendent of Sunday school, Walter H. James; assistant superintendent, John M. McElroy; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. George Fogg; librarian, Mrs. W. H. Jones; assistant, Miss Florence Hersey; women members of church committee, Misses Grace Brown and Edith Brewster; representatives on DeMerritt and Harris funds, Harold M. Smith.

Made It Easy for Several; Now
Try It With Odd Numbers.

The fact that an error was made in quoting the figure puzzle of workman No. 1487 at the Shattuck shipyard, made it easy for several people to figure the correct result. The puzzle of workman No. 1487 should have read as follows: "Add seven odd numbers and make 110."

Now the game will be different and those who got by easy on the wrong set of figures can get busy and show the Shattuck man what they can do. He says everybody is welcome to get into it and he will guarantee that those who try to solve it will have some job. He is waiting for the first reply through the Herald. If you think you can get anything on workman No. 1487, go to it.

PRISONERS TO PUT SHOW ON IN THIS CITY

Tom Osborne's Men to Appear in Work for Charity.

For the first time in the history of the United States naval prison, the inmates of that institution will be allowed to meet an audience in the outside world in their work for charity.

They are coming to Portsmouth at a date to be announced later where they will appear in a catchy two-act musical comedy "Creatures of Impulse," by W. B. Gilbert, recently produced at the prison by 31 prisoners which to the delight of the officers of the yard, enlisted men and prisoners who witnessed the performance. Permission has been granted by the Secretary of the Navy and it will be for the benefit of the Naval Auxiliary of the Red Cross of which Mrs. Josephus Daniels is the national head.

The company will be enlarged by a dozen or more men for this occasion. The men have been coached by Lieut. Comdr. Thomas Mott Osborne, commanding the prison, who has added several snappy choruses to the original comedy.

Civilians who had the opportunity to witness the prisoners' work during the holiday season make no hesitation in saying that they gave a most wonderful performance, equal to many of the light operettas to be seen on the civilian stage.

THE HERALD HEARS

That it looks like a vacation for all (democrats?) at City Hall.

That officials at the Portsmouth navy yard say that not all of the censorship practiced during the war has been called off.

That the police ambulance was sent to Kittery on Saturday to bring a patient to the local hospital.

That some fine pictures were taken of the launching of the City of Newton at the Shattuck yard on Saturday, also photos of the launching party and sponsor.

That the Portsmouth Athenaeum, a fine honored organization, will have the annual election of officers on Wednesday afternoon.

That improvements are being made on the wharf of the Stockholm County Light and Power Company.

That Dr. A. T. Smith of York Village was recently elected vice president at the 95th quarterly meeting of the York County Medical Society at Hildeford.

That the proposed change in the numbering of the fire alarm boxes will meet the approval of the men in the fire department.

That this change should have come long ago.

That some of the present members of the system cause a useless wear and tear of alarm.

That the new city government might also help out the department in another way by unking the ladder truck.

That this piece of apparatus was up to date about 50 years ago.

That no armistice has yet been signed in the health department.

That the steamer "Sightseer," formerly of the Isle of Shoals Steamship Company is being made over as a tow boat.

POLICE COURT

Agnes Bayne was in the municipal court today charged with larceny of bed clothing made by another woman. The court, after hearing Miss Bayne and other witnesses decided that there was no probable cause and discharged the defendant.

John Heaney, charged with assault, pleaded guilty and was ordered to serve 60 days in jail and pay costs of $5.74.

Jack Kennedy, Thomas Kirein, Charles Humphreys and Edward Snow made up a jakey quartet arrested on Saturday. Snow put up a personal bail to the amount of $25 for his ni-pearance in court later. When his name was called he was among the missing and the $25 was added to the city treasury with credit to the court. It would have likely been cheaper if Snow had taken a chance and faced the court.

Kennedy and Humphreys released a fine of $11.36, and Kirein settled for $10.56.
